This policy explains how you may use the content of the 1 Van 1 Man Removals website (www.1van1man.com). It applies as soon as you visit our website.

What is copyright infringement?

Copyright gives the owner exclusive rights over their work. You infringe copyright if you do any of those things without the owner's permission, for example copying or adapting a copyright work, or making it available online. The simplest way to avoid infringing copyright is not to use anything created by someone else without their permission.
